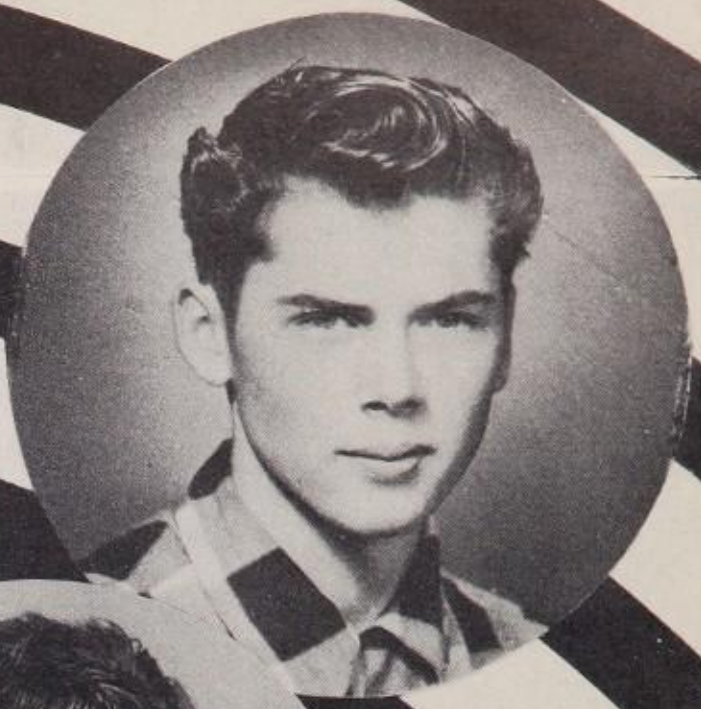
TRADITION DAY



We thank you,
Dons and Donnas,
for helping us to produce this,
your 1950 Circle. We enjoyed publishing it and hope that you will enjoy reading
the Dorsey Annual.
Address all complaints and compliments to Ted Dalton, Highlands of Scotland, and to Al Cluff,

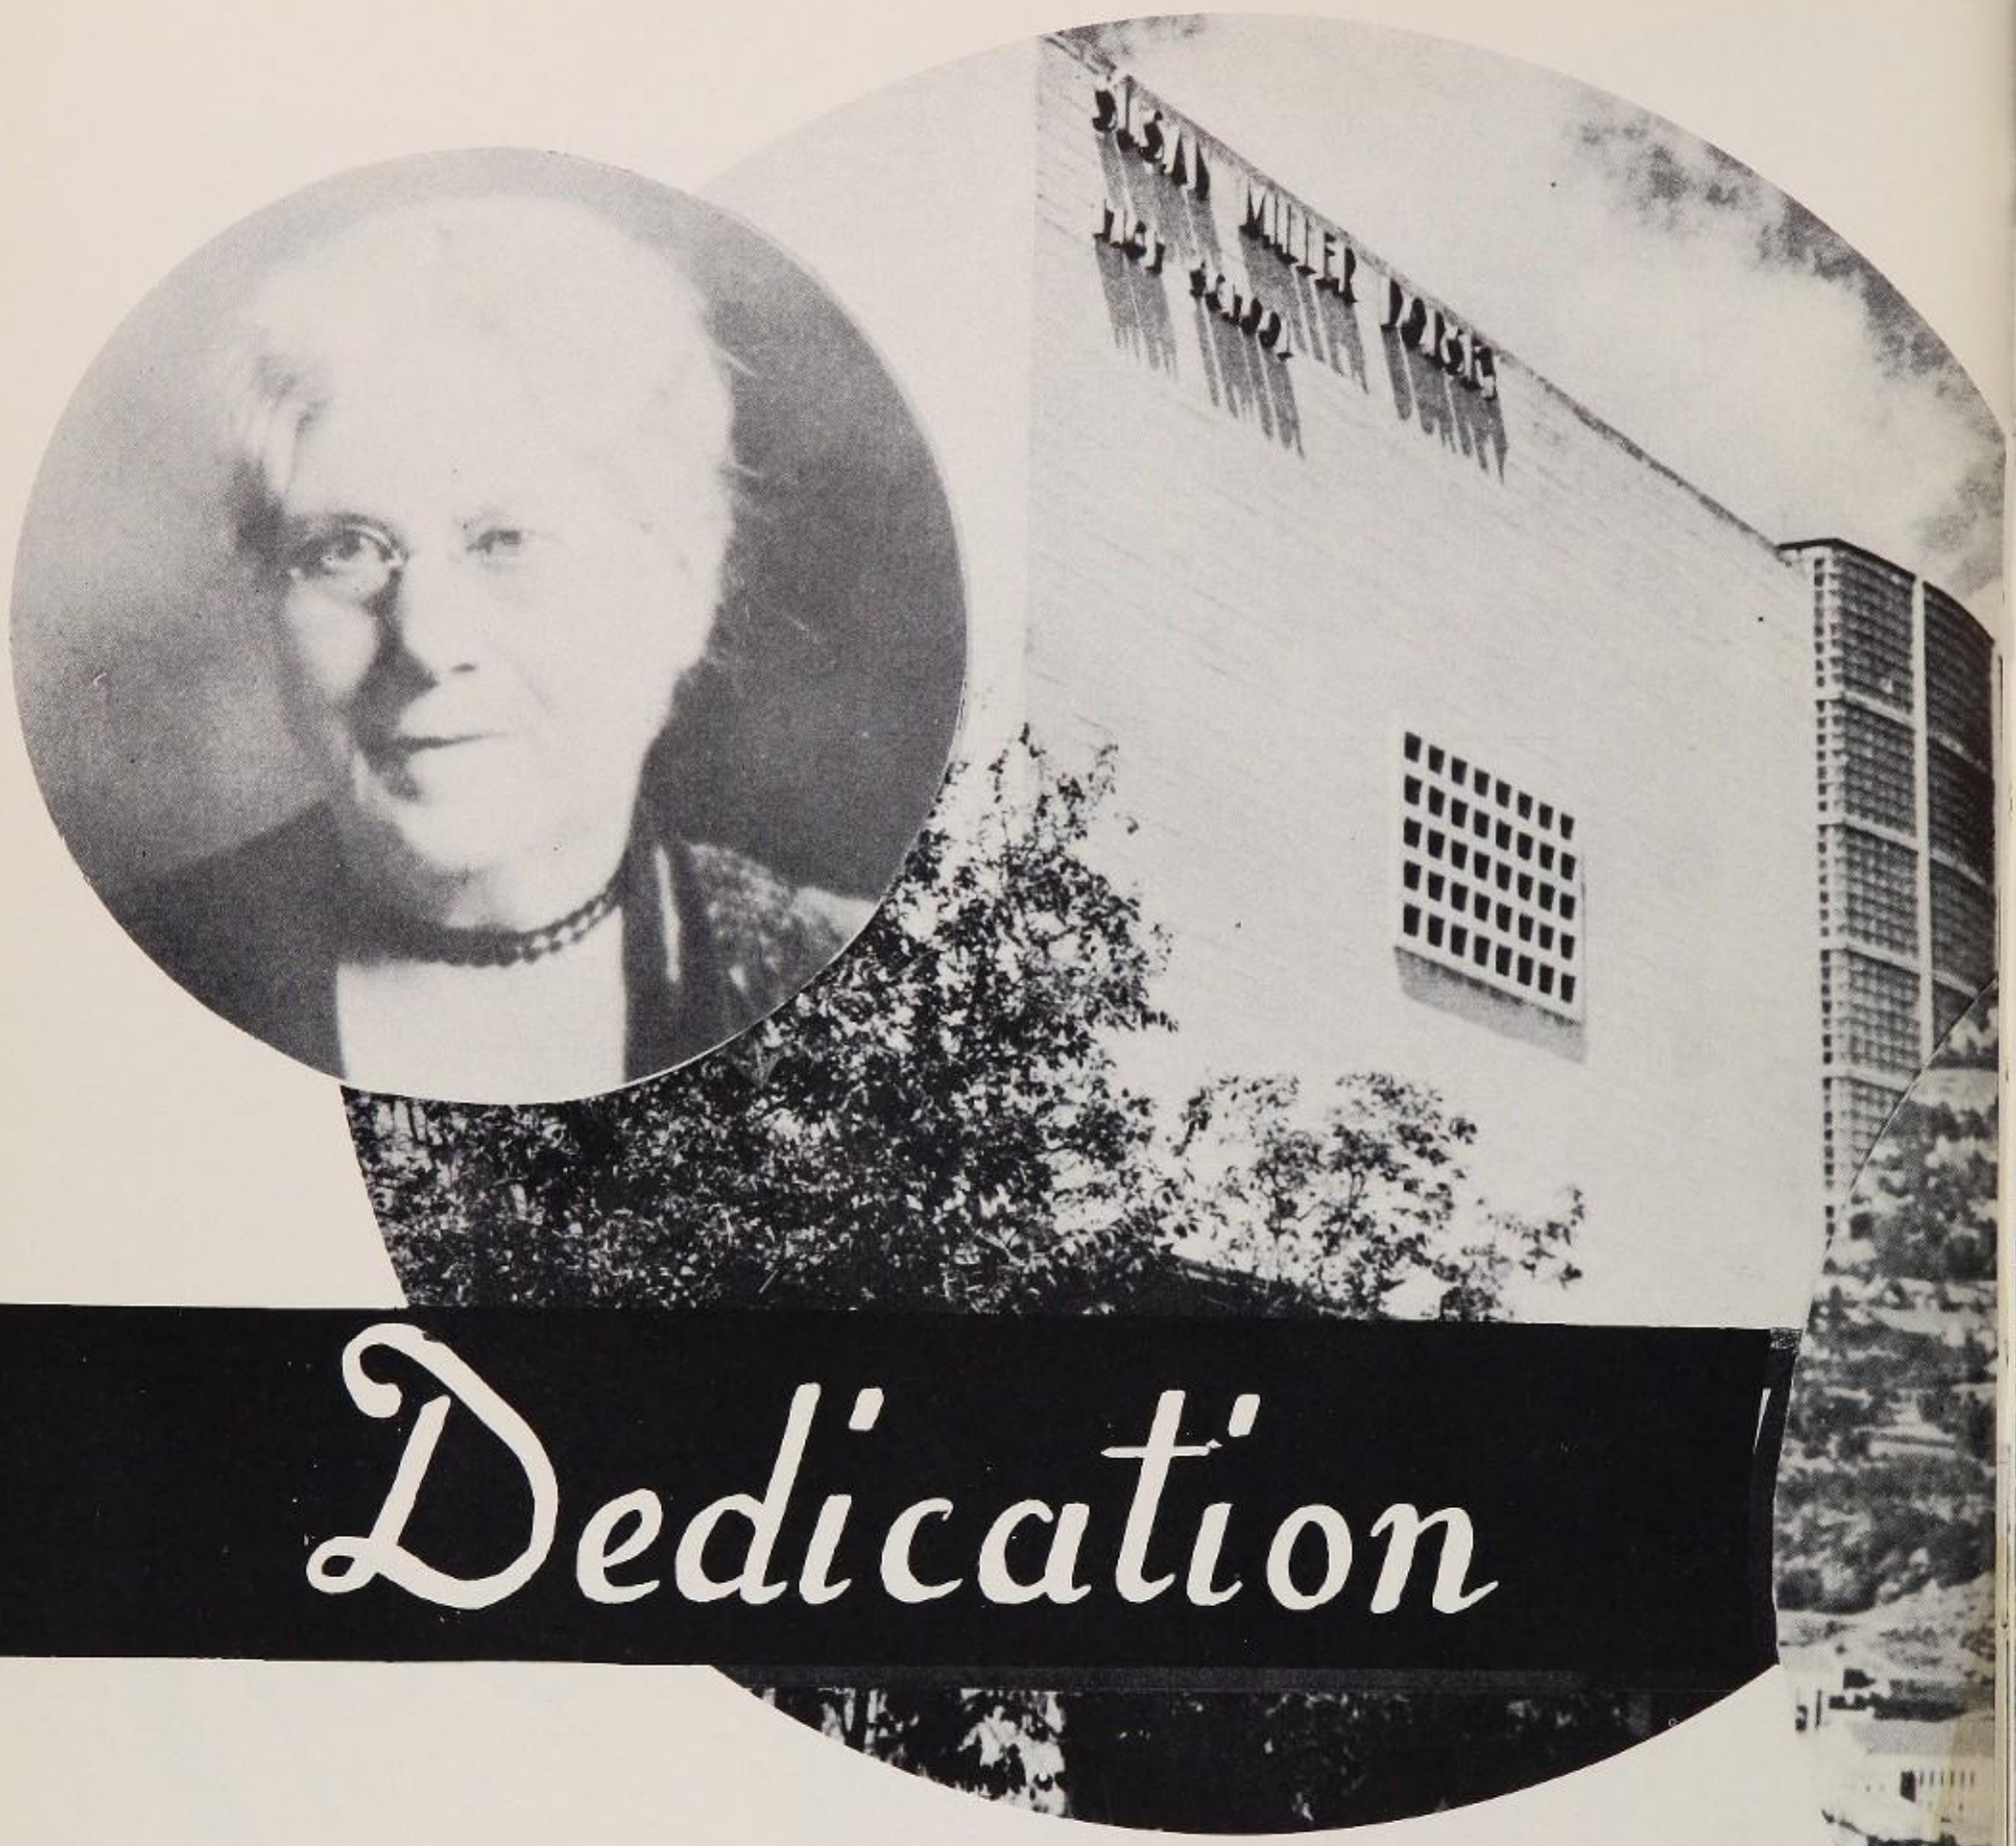
Susan Miller Dorsey High School

Los Angeles, California



Dedication

Susan Miller Dorsey will always be remembered as an outstanding woman and a real educational leader. Like Ernest Carroll Moore, she was an earnest, hard-working pioneer, an honor to education in Southern California.

Mrs. Dorsey was Superintendent of Los Angeles Schools from 1920 to 1929. She was head of a system which was just beginning to expand at the rate to which we have now become accustomed.

This fine lady, after her retirement, was a frequent visitor at Dorsey, the only school in Los Angeles named for a living person. Until her death Mrs. Dorsey remained alert and keen. Once, at an assembly in her honor, it was noticeable that she could not walk as fast as a younger person. She explained this seeming incapacity with real philosophy: "It is true that I cannot walk as fast as I used to, but I see so much more on the way."

The 1950 Circle honors the memory of Susan Miller Dorsey.

While we remember Susan Miller Dorsey for her contribution to education in Los Angeles, we remember Dr. Ernest Carroll Moore for his contribution, not only to education in Los Angeles schools, but to the higher education of California.

Dr. Moore was Superintendent of Los Angeles Schools from 1906 to 1919, President of the State Normal School, Los Angeles, now Los Angeles City College, from 1917 to 1919, a professor of education and the Director of University of California at Los Angeles from 1919 to 1929, Provost, Vice-President, and professor of education at U.C.L.A. until 1941, when he retired.

Like Mrs. Dorsey, Dr. Moore has always kept faith in human beings. As professor of education, he spoke at length about the Greek Ideal, a combination of idea and action, wisdom and practicality.

Surely no one about us today has realized this Greek ideal more fully. He has been an idealist, a man of action. As one of his colleagues said of him: "He proved that it is not radically impossible for a do-gooder to be keen-sighted and practical; we all know that it is extremely easy for a cynic to be a weakling and a fool."

WINTER

KNEELING, left to right: Mary Vidos, Joan Feinblum, Wilma Doyle, Pat Alexander. SECOND ROW: Jim Biby, Don Simonian, Joette Clark, Jim Manos, Ardelle Coleman, Bill Wills, Sven Johnson. THIRD ROW: Dick Harris, Earle Glenn, Bill Blewtt, Kay Daubenberger, Ken Hedstrom, Norma Comrada, Jim McGregor, Sid Levine, Mr. Joseph Drury, coordinator.

The Executive Board is composed of all elected student body officers and the president of Knights, president of Ladies, president of Congress, the Commissioner of Community Activities, Senior "A" president, president of California Association of Student Councils, president of Criterions, Head Manager, and the president of G. A. A.

Congress is composed of representatives from each homeroom. The various representatives meet to discuss school problems, to suggest action to the Executive Board.

The work of the Executive Board this semester has been the adoption of a school in Vienna, Austria. This school, a technological school, will be sent books and supplies by the Dorsey student body.

The Executive Board, in addition, has revised the school constitution and worked to coordinate alumni relations with the student body.

SUMMER

This Board aids boys with scholastic problems and makes corrective adjustments. Members keep the high standards of Dorsey functioning for the male half of Dorsey. As activities they join the Girls' Board in sponsoring noon-sock hops and plan noon assemblies for boys. For May Day, in order to make the day as enjoyable for the boys as for the girls, they have a program for the fellows in the auditorium.

To aid girls in their problems and to help them make new friends are the main functions of this board. During each semester they plan activities which the girls will enjoy. Together with the Boys' Board they sponsor noon-sock hops. In the fall they busy themselves presenting assemblies for the girls. In the spring May Day is their big event.

Service Board

Bill Pfleiderer, Summer '50

To maintain the high standards in scholastic, leadership and service achievements is the main goal of our Dorsey Knights. They set the high standards which all boys admire and strive to achieve.

This group busies itself assisting all new boys with their programs and helping them become acquainted with the school. They also usher at special assemblies and are a great help at P.T.A. meetings.

These boys are members of one of the most honored clubs at Dorsey and should be applauded for their untiring work.

The Ladies is a girls' honorary organization here at Dorsey. Membership in this organization is the goal toward which all Dorsey girls strive, but only those who excel in leadership, scholarship, and service attain it.

The main duties of these girls consist in supervising the B10 parties and B10 conferences and representing the Dorsey student body in many public contacts.

A girl who has been a Lady can justly feel that she has done her share to make Dorsey a better school.

The mighty Kiltsmen, under the able direction of Mrs. Ruth Wollett and Mr. William Rhoads, participated in a most profitable and enjoyable term.

Highlights of the year were the thorough trouncing of the Corsairs on Senior Field Day, and no Senior will ever forget the Senior Prom and the dreamy music of Carroll Wax and his orchestra.

As the term drew to the end we all believed in common—Dorsey is a grand Alma Mater.

The highest scholarship honor to be attained at Dorsey is life membership in the California Scholarship Society. To be a Sealbearer, the student must be a member of C. S. F. for four semesters. One of these semesters of membership must be in the twelfth grade. The outward symbol of this achievement is a gold seal on the graduate's diploma.

June 16, 1950, was a beautiful day with the breeze of the blue Pacific gently blowing the graduation gowns of the Corsairs who had chosen as their colors red and white.

The Seniors of Summer '50 enjoyed an eventful year and they are now ready to make their various ways in a sterner world.

Around and Around in Circles They Go

The Circle for 1950 is marked by colored end sheets of different design, larger senior photos, more advertisements than we have ever had before, and an attempt at a better cover.

We sincerely thank all loyal Dorsey citizens for their cooperation this year. To the Administration, the Attendance Office, and to Mr. Gerard Burchard of Photography go our thanks; to Mr. Walter Larsh and his Activity Ticket sales and to Mr. Bernard Brown and his collecting, go our gratitude for making our school annual possible.

Editors for 1950 were Ted Dalton and Al Cluff.

Winter Staff

Dorsey's weekly publication, the Dorseygram, brings the current news of the school and students to the student body every Thursday. The staff, under the guidance of Miss Mary Turner, is composed of the Editor in Chief, and the four page editors. The Dorseygram consists of four pages. The first page contains the news stories of school events and students' activities. Page two is devoted entirely to the enjoyment of the students and is known as the feature page. The third page reports news of clubs officers and senior activities. All sports events are reported on the fourth page. The staff gets its assignments from the page editors, write their stories and hand them in. The editors are constantly busy planning pages, and are forever trying to meet the deadline. Without the help of the following advisors, the Dorseygram would not be possible: Miss Mary Turner—Journalism, Mr. Charles Hamilton—Printing and Distribution, Miss Esperance Slykhouse—Sale and Advertising and Miss Edna Jones—Art.

Summer Staff

KNEELING: Keith Mulrooney. STANDING: Joan Golfenbaum, Al Cluff, JoAnn Artale.

Trial Flights

Each spring the creative writing classes, under the direction of Mrs. Blanche Garrison, publish some of the creative writing at Dorsey. This magazine is called TRIAL FLIGHTS. The following are representative poems from the 1950 edition of TRIAL FLIGHTS:

Popocatepetl

Above the village she stands
In all her snow capped glory;
Below the village is quiet
The people are at rest,
Her job of watching
is done for another day.
Slowly she pulls up the dark
cool sheets of night,
Closes her tired eyes,
shutting out the moons light.
Both are quiet and sleep,
The "Sleeping Lady" and the village.

Elaine Feldman

A Walk in the Rain

I love rain . . . It's so completely fresh—
Like a crisp, hard apple, or a white
Eyelet blouse, or striped cotton pajamas
That have just been ironed . . . Many people
Think that perfection on a rainy day
Is curling up in front of the fireplace
With a Kenneth Roberts' novel in his Hand, a dog dozing at his feet. But not Me. My pleasure is being a part of That rain . . . I like to strain big boots onto My feet, and turn the cuffs down once. Next comes
My heavy salt-and-pepper gray tweed coat.
And finally a red plaid scarf over
My straight brown hair. Then I'm ready to go Outside . . . I'm so warm inside my coat.
Only my face can feel the coolness of
The neutral drops, flicking lightly against
My brow, making my eyes so wide awake
And eager, making everything clear and bright.
My face peers from the plaid and sees a world
Of moist and efflorescent beauty, a world in grays and greens.
And I walk on and on.

Jeannie Macdonald

Memories

The cool grey eyes of the portrait met mine
And we were one in complete accord.
The pastel hands were etched with lines,
I searched and my spirit soared.

I saw such softness in those eyes,
And such tenderness in those hands,
I longed to hear her sigh
As she spoke her slight commands.

I turned away full of despair,
And I ceased my anguished call,
Because I knew she was only there
A portrait on the wall.

She was my Mother.

Secretaries

FIRST ROW, left to right: Angie Baglione, Roberta Golden, Virginia Kawasaki, Barbara Erickson, Katherine Koozian (center front), Shizako Yamamoto, Betty Bouquet, Gladys Arditty, Pat Elder, Pat Alexander, Alice Kato, Olga Mora, Mrs. Ida Scott, sponsor; Janet Rothenberg, Betty Baer, Jane Weber, Evelyn Perry, Jackie Marshall, Wilma Doyle, Norma Lundberg, Miss Esperance Slykhous, sponsor.

The Dorsey Secretaries are selected girls who type expertly. This organization is of great service to Dorsey and the student body with their secretarial tasks such as typing letters, mimeographing ballots, addressing circulars, and many other such duties.

Print Production

The duties of the Print Shop Production group are many. These students constitute one of the most important groups on campus. The weekly Dorseygram is dependent upon this group which prints the publication, besides the printing of school programs for graduation and assemblies, office forms, cards, hall passes, posters, and other school necessities.

Clubs

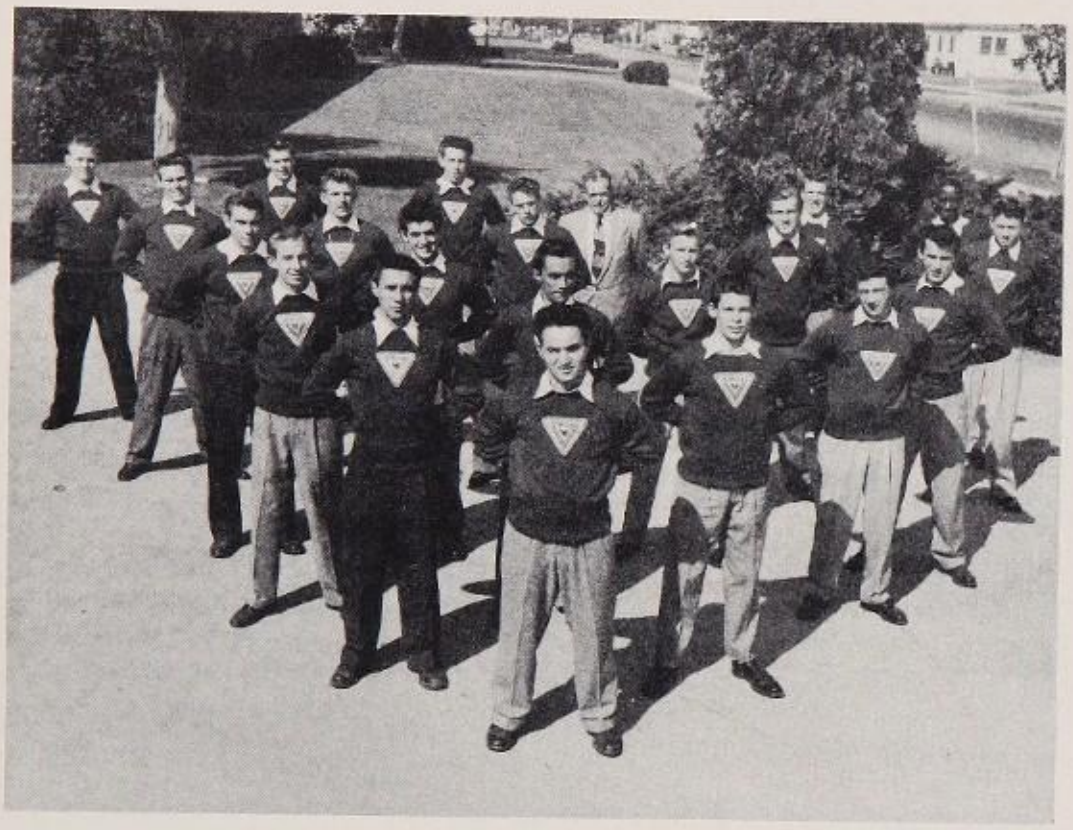
FIRST ROW: Stan Singer. SECOND ROW, left to right: Jay Friedman, Bob Gordon. THIRD ROW: Bill Krebs, Al Escobar, Lee Cooperman. FOURTH ROW: Darel Griffen, Jim Manos, Sven Johnson, Jim Moseman. FIFTH ROW: Dick Henderson, Jim Lucostic, John Freeman, Jack McIntyre, Keith Mulrooney. SIXTH ROW: Lee Wright, Ted Dalton, Jim Biby, Mr. Charles Hamilton, sponsor; George Vose, Thomas Moore.



For many years now the Dorsey Vikings have set a fine example, and this year, again, the individual members of this club stand high. Serving the school in every possible way, maintaining outstanding and distinguished ideals, the Vikings are respected throughout the Dorsey Community.

LDS

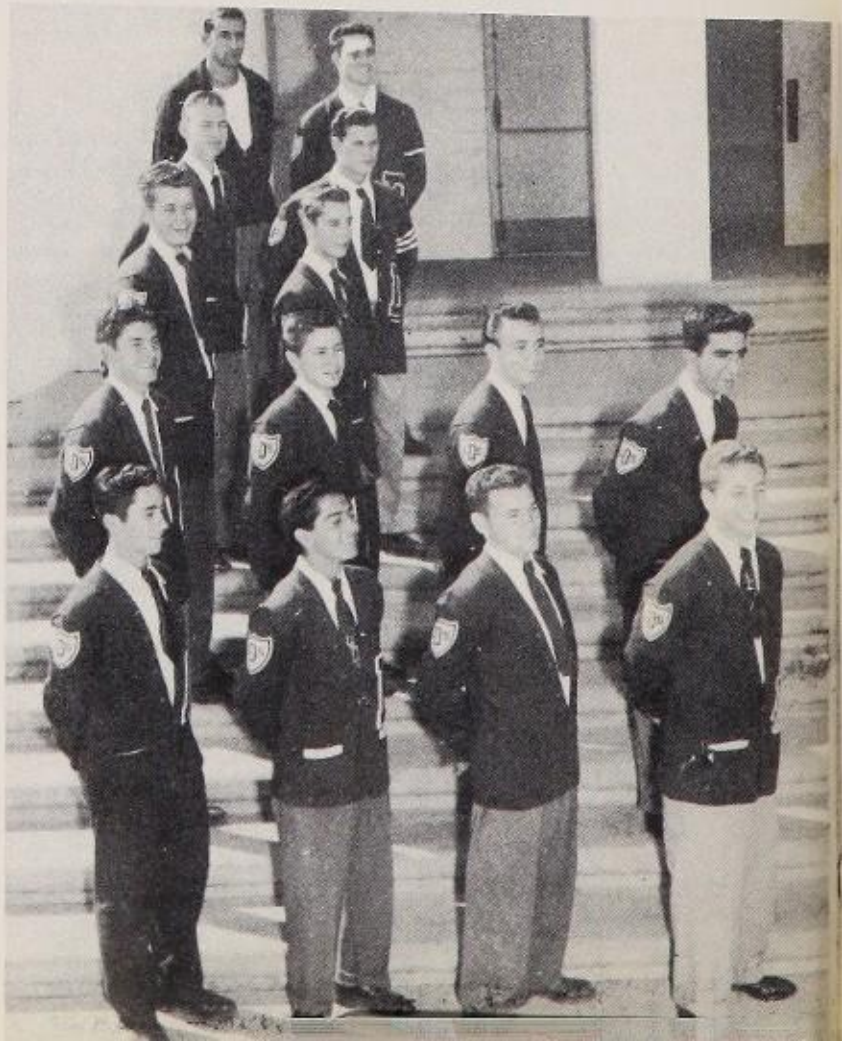
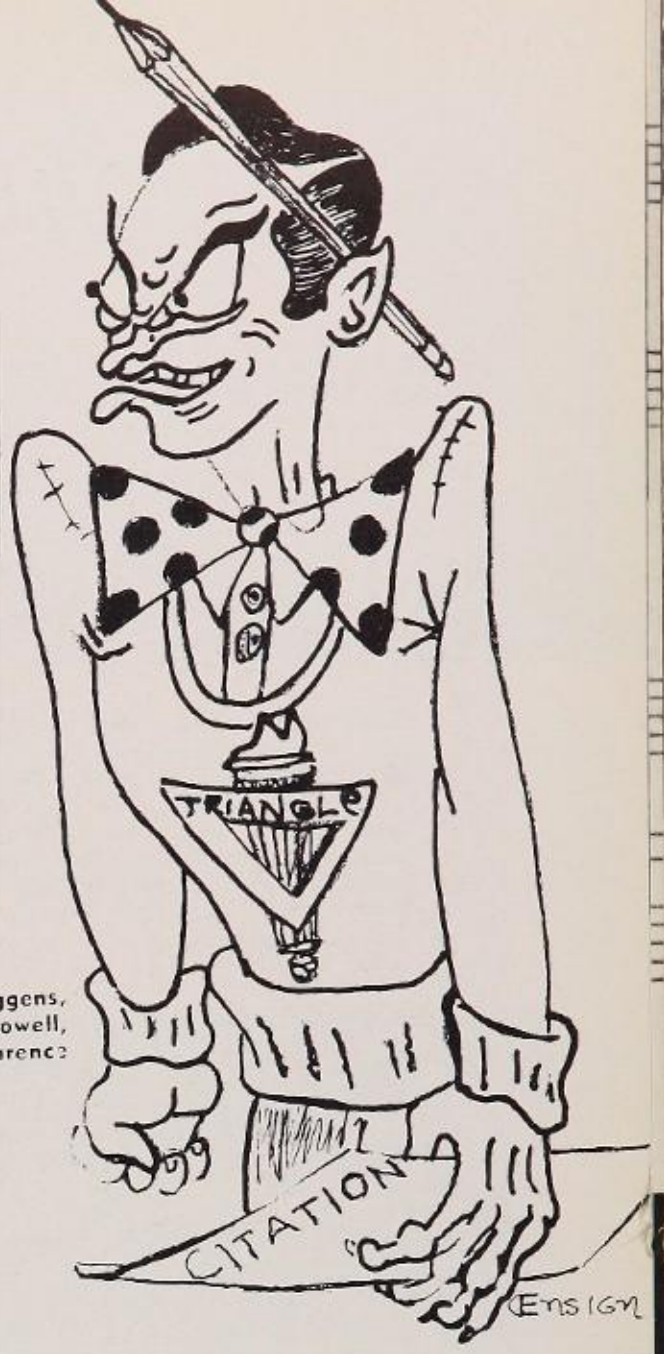
The Dorsey Lettermen's Society stand out as a fine, well organized group. Ushering at assemblies, helping at athletic events, and keeping an orderly campus make up the duties of this club.



Triangle

FIRST ROW, left to right: Glen Schaffer, Dick Rowland, Warren Barr, Bill Pfleiderer, Gene DiGiovanni, Phil Flexo, John Brunskill, Henry Chikakisa, Dick Arpea, Norman Johansen, Dick Herman, Ken Sakaida, Steve Giffen, Maurice Chanon. SECOND ROW: Steve Thomas, Jerry Biggens, Bob Thompson, Sid Jenkins, George Abadjian, Don Crowell, Rodger Koen, Wade Miller. CENTER: Mr. Laurence Walker, sponsor.



A brown sweater and bow tie symbolize the Triangle Club. Upholding Dorsey's citizenship standards and promoting cooperation among the students, faculty, and administration, members of this group set a good example for the student body.

Key Club

COLUMN ONE, from rear to front: Harvey Rose, Leonard Shapiro, Doug Vincent, Dave Hodgdon, Ed Pasini, Bill Voorhees. COLUMN TWO: Ron Chittenden, Pat McGinness, Earl Bauer, Keith Leaburn, Larry Holtzman, Howard Schaeffer. COLUMN THREE: Jon Engberg, Dee Trent, Doug Vincent, Dave Michner, Ronald Griffith, Jack Martinez, Don Deering, Ray Johnson.

A new club this year, the Key Club has accomplished many fine things for the community. Among its activities were helping to raise funds for the Community Center, distributing posters, helping at local community events, and generally representing the Dorsey name in our high school community.

Community Players

William Shakespeare once said: "All the world's a stage." As far as the Dorsey Community Players are concerned, every place is "on scene," for under the expert direction of Mrs. Annice Moore, the class has been very active this year.

Outstanding productions this year were three one act plays: THE COMEDY OF ERRORS, THE VALIANT and THE PROPOSAL.

MELODY JONES, a hilarious teen age comedy, was presented to the student body and general public in March.

Several members of the class entered the Shakespearean Festival.

Public Speaking

Hampered by the serious loss of their able speech coach, Mr. Frank Clemenson, during the second semester, Dorsey orators carried out an average year in participation.

In Southern California tournaments Loralee Allen took second place in interpretive reading. Elaine Lampas, a newcomer to the squad, took third place in humorous declamation. Esther Roditti took a third place in oratorical declamation. The climax of the first term came when Duane Ryan and Don Newman took first place in extemporaneous speaking and oratory, respectively.

Heading Varsity Debate this year were Don Newman, captain, and his partner, Don Black, manager. Other fine debaters were: Ronald Abell, Bob Long, Dick Lewis, Duane Ryan, Dave Posley, Ted Green, Jim Lucostic, Ronnie Marshall, Jim Del Guercio, and Dick Weiss. Dorsey took third place in Southern California.

As usual, radio was an important feature in Dorsey speech activity. Participants in the American School of the Air over KFI were La Verne Wolfe, Esther Roditti, Don Newman and Don Black. Bill Van Alstyne, Tracy Strevey, and Billi Dorris participated in a forum over KXLA.

Under the direction of Dr. Zelma Huxtable, Esther Roditti took second place in the Daily News Annual Oratory Contest for Women. Esther won a $500 scholarship.

Dorsey Circle-a-tors

Since this group was organized in November, 1947, it has grown to be the largest club at Dorsey, and also one of the most enjoyable. The purpose of the Circle-Ators is to provide and plan recreational activities for the students to attend and enjoy.

Assembly Committee

Representatives of each grade make up this Assembly Committee which strives to bring the best in assemblies to the students. These selected students meet and bring suggestions for improving the assemblies and each has his own job in carrying out the responsibilities of the assemblies. This committee is headed by the Student Commissioners of Community Activities and Fine Arts.

Y Teens

The activities of the Y Teens are of great service to Dorsey and our community. The various branches of the Y.W.C.A. work and contribute their effort to such community groups as the Red Cross, orphanages, veterans, and others where help is needed.

Hostess Club

The girls who are selected to belong to the Hostess Club perform long hours of gracious serving at breakfasts, luncheons and other such school affairs. They frequently must arrive very early in the morning or must remain at school until late evening in order to perform their duties with the most sincere effort. Since they are a select group, the girls must be neat and exacting in duties, since the club requires much of their time.

The Music Department has been very influential in developing the cultural interests of the Dorsey Student Body. Under the able supervision of Mrs. Harriet Wenig, the department has presented many interesting programs in the Circle and the Auditorium.

The Dorsey Band, under the enthusiastic leadership of Mr. William Rhoads, played a great part in bringing the Sportsmanship Trophy back to Dorsey. The unceasing effort of Mr. Rhoads was displayed in the numerous stunts which he presented before the students at half time at football games.

The Music Department brought quite an inspiring Christmas program to the student-body this last year. The presentation consisted not only of traditionally reverent and spiritual quality, but also of a dash of the joyous spirit of the Yule Tide season.

Another highlight of the musical year was an exchange assembly presented by the A Cappella Choirs of both Washington and Dorsey High. The assembly was received with such enthusiasm and was such a success that another exchange assembly was planned by Mr. James Burt, director of Dorsey's A Cappella Choir.

The progress made this year by the Music Department should prove to be a great help in the department's advancement at Dorsey.

DICK DELUEZE
Outstanding Back

Ending a poor season of play our football men from Rancho had two victories and five setbacks. Starting off the season with a heartbreaking loss to Fairfax we came back strong to edge Hamilton and Van Nuys. Then by constant losses we lost what was needed in a team, a good offense. Our team was led by Second Stringer League Bob Odian and other standouts such as Frank Wetzel, Bill Blewett, and George Vose. But all is not lost, for returning next year are Stan Singer, Joe Lucostic, Dick Henderson, and Nate Leanse, all backfield lettermen. These boys should keep our Dons in the league running next year.

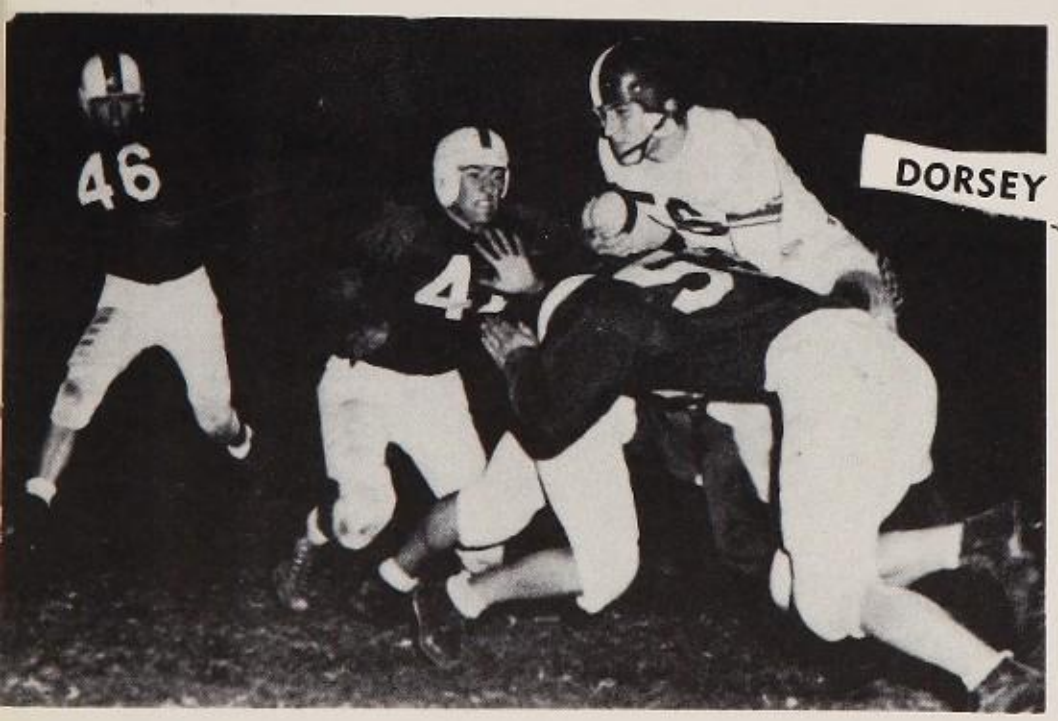
DORSEY 6; FAIRFAX 13

Dorsey, ruined by fumbles and a poor pass defense, spelled defeat in our first league game. Ajalat for the Colonials and Henderson for the Dons played inspired ball.

DORSEY 7; HAMILTON 6

With the fine play of the Dorsey line and the needle like passing of Bill Blewett the Gauchos scored an upset win over the Hamilton Yankees.



DORSEY 13; VAN NUYS 6

In a non-league game Dorsey defeated a powerful team from Van Nuys. Outstanding for Dorsey that day was the strong line play of Frank Wetzel and Don Crowell.

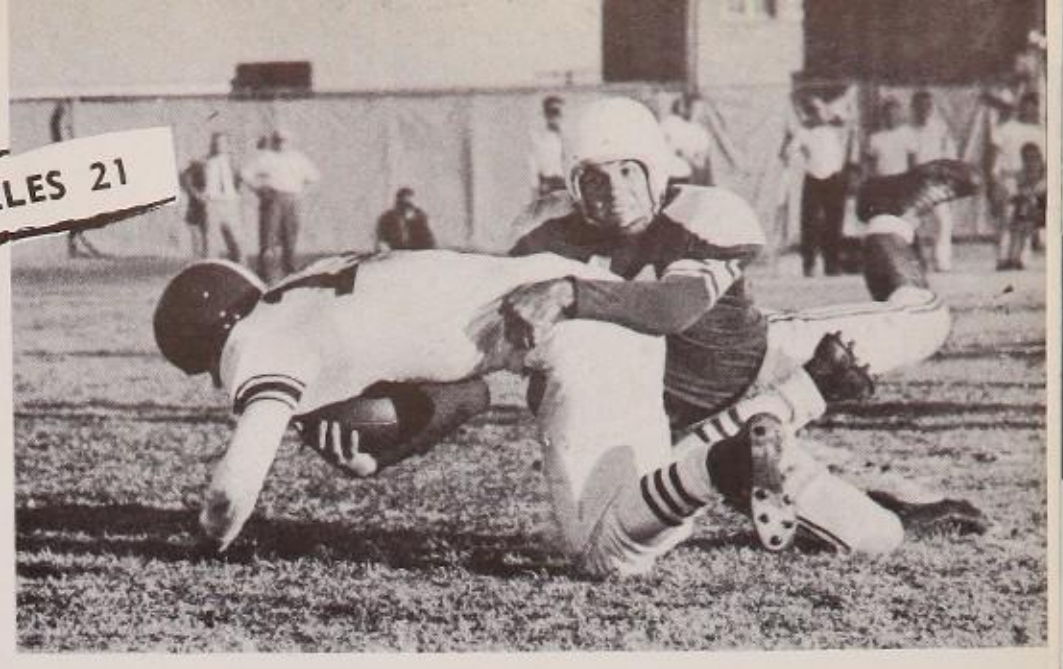
DORSEY 12; LOS ANGELES 21

Too much Markowitz defeated the Dons, but some fine blocking by Bob Odian and the pass catching by Doug Brockert paved the way for two Don scores.



DORSEY 0; VENICE 27

Speed was the difference as the highly touted undefeated Sheiks romped to another victory. Standouts for Dons were George Vose, Stan Singer, and Joe Lucostic.

DORSEY 18; HOLLYWOOD 35

The Dons went down to their fifth league defeat but with Leance, Biby, and the Long brothers, Tom and Jim, the Gauchos put up a fight.

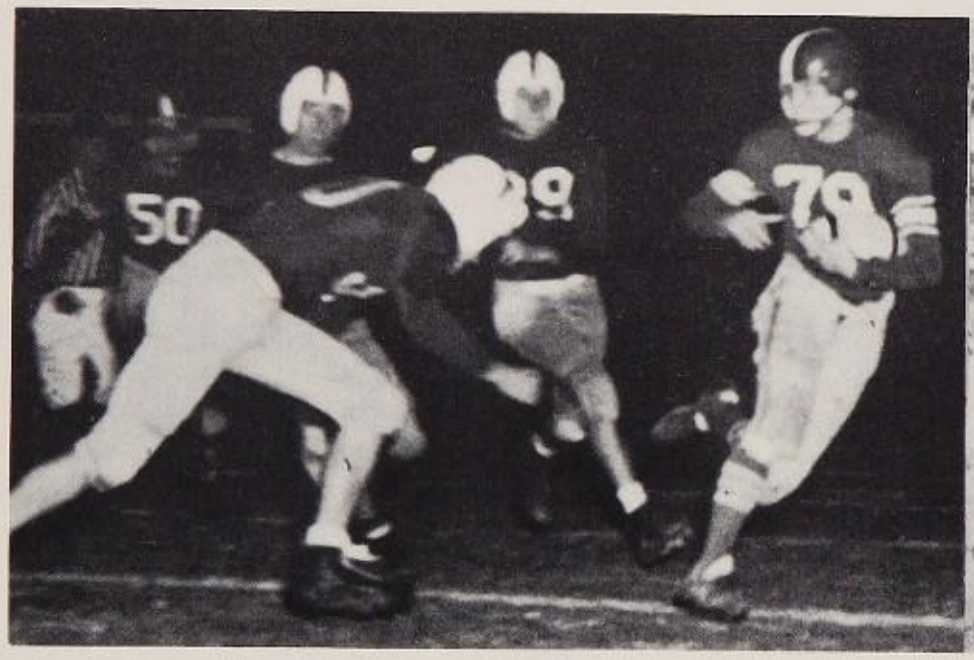
The Bee Bombers started right off from where they left off last year by downing Fairfax 9-6. Caramelli, shown above, and Greene led the Don attack.

Hamilton proved to be no match for the mighty Bee team from Dorsey as they ran almost at will. Greene, Hutchinson, and Cluff each scored to down Hami 19-0.



Fumbleitis hit the Bee Bombers as they fumbled the game away and Van Nuys came out on top 13-7. The line play of Benham, McNamara, and Adelian was outstanding for Dorsey.

Dorsey continued their winning ways by defeating Los Angeles 19-6. Cluff, who scored two of the Dorsey three touchdowns, and Caramelli kept the Bees in first place.

The Bombers roared to score 19 points in the second quarter to defeat Hollywood 19-14. Kalajian, a Dorsey tackle, stole the show by intercepting a Hollywood pass and scoring.

We played one of our best games with Cluff and Caramelli playing great ball—but to no avail, as Venice won 13-7. Cluff scored all seven Dorsey points.

This year's varsity track team started off the season in the right manner by downing the Fairfax Colonials 82-21. Darel Griffin's twin win in the 100 and 440 was the highlight of the meet. The next meet was another win for the Dons when they defeated the Hamilton Yankee's, 60-44. Al William's pole vaulting jump of 11 ft. 6 in. high lighted the meet. The third straight win was over Los Angeles, 56-48. The highlight of the meet was Jack McIntyre's 22-flat running of the 220. The next was Dorsey's downfall: the University team blemished Dorsey's unbeaten record, 53-51. The next meet dimmed Dorsey's hopes completely for league honors when Hollywood defeated the Dorsey team, 53-51.

The final dual meet of the season against Venice was won by Dorsey, 62 to 42.

We had to go to press before the league meet or city meets, but Dorsey showed every indication of placing men in both meets.

The Dorsey Varsity Baseballers started right off by winning seven out of eight practice games, losing only to the Wilson Mules. Then when league started the Dons were really on fire, they had won seven straight league games when we had to go to press.

We expected our Dons to be on top when the league finals rolled around and also on top in the city playoffs, the Dorsey tournament. This year's team was led by Al Cluff, Ed Palmquist, Terry Finigan, and Bill Consolo, who were all up there in the hitting department. The year was highlighted, when, in the University game, Ed Palmquist pitched a no hitter.

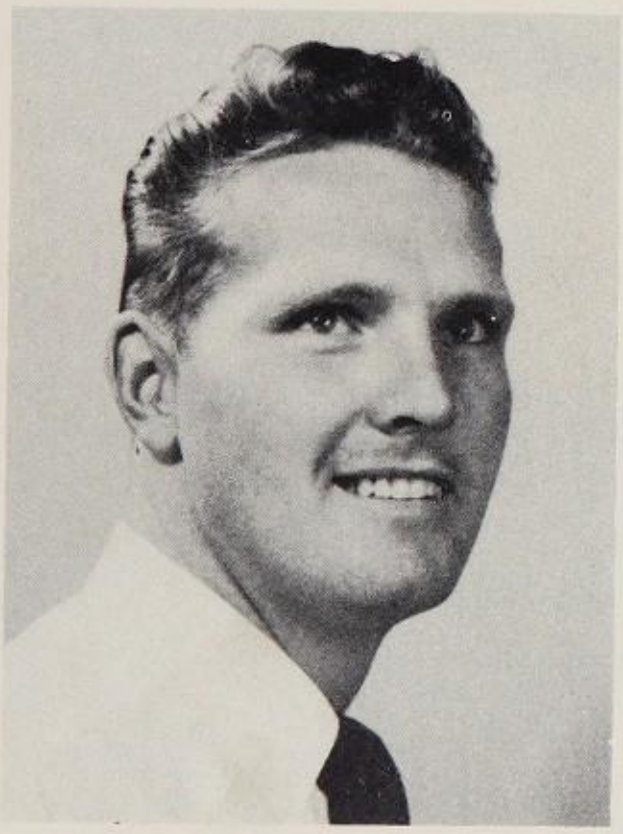
So Long . . .



. . . and Hello!

To the Senior A's:

You are all about to become members of one of the finest groups in Los Angeles by virtue of your graduation.

This association of Dorsey Alumni members is among the youngest of such organizations in the city; possibilities exist here for all of us to do much.

I ask you, as prospective alumni leaders, to support this group by personally participating in our activities. It will be well worth your while if you'll give your membership a try.

We'll see you in November!
